November 2: Lunch & Lecture

We will be heading to The Learning Center located at 3025 Bull Street for a stimulating lecture by Associated Press consultant and former professor Bruce Mallard. Dr. Mallard will speak on the origins, rationales, and interesting historical saga of the Electoral College, an institution that has come under attack in recent years. Is it brilliant in its levelling of the playing field amongst the states; or is it an obsolete abacus for awarding the presidency? The lecture begins at noon; we will arrange carpooling from The Landings. Lunch to follow at nearby Ardsley Station. Checks payable to Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Savannah for $15 ($10 if you are a member of SCI) are due by October 24. Please mail or tube to Sue Souls, 206 Yam Gandy Road, Savannah 31411.

December 8: Holiday Cocktail Party

Andrea and Robert Felkins will be hosting our annual party in their Marshwood home at 2 Cannon Lane (in the Landings, just off Wiley Bottom)  Husbands/partners also invited for this festive event which will run from 6-8 p.m. We are asking everyone to bring an appetizer to share and unwrapped children's books for our book drive. We provide wine, soft drinks and bottled water. RSVP to Allison Smith, allisonrsmith@comcast.net, by December 3rd. Please let her know if you are bringing a guest and if you require a gate pass.

February 5: Gospel Brunch

Good Times Jazz Bar & Restaurant, 107 West Broughton Street, is the setting for our brunch at noon. Come enjoy some delicious food (Chef Joe Randall is at the helm) with your sisters while listening to some uplifting entertainment. The brunch menu features a nice assortment of a la carte items. To secure our reservation and be seated downstairs where the singers perform, we need to reserve early and pay a $10 per person fee which will be credited towards our brunch bill. If you would like to attend, please send $10 payable to Allison Smith, 4 Skimmar Circle, Savannah 31411 by December 15. Carpooling will be available from The Landings.
